

Staff Vacancies 14 January 2021

Thuringia International School would like to make the following appointment for next school year:

Teacher of English as a Second language

Summary of requirements:

- Certification for teaching ESL;
- A degree in English Language, English Literature, or a similar field is preferred;
- Bilingual language skills in English and German;
- Flexibility and problem-solving capability.

Further requirements:

The teacher will have the ability to:

- Support the aims, objectives, goals, ethos, and mission of the school, to follow school policies for teaching English as a Second Language, including guidance for inquiry learning and for in-class and pull-out environments;
- Organize coursework and learning materials, including assessing student progress and writing reports;
- Track student progress and customize individualized plans for students with special requirements;
- Create a positive class environment that encourages students to reach defined learning goals;
- Teach students with different learning needs simultaneously in a differentiated manner;
- Demonstrate good critical thinking skills to understand student and staff issues;
- Work constructively in a small team environment, able to impart a positive impact with students and staff;
- Inform parents about student progress.

Additional notes

- The position is full time from August 2021 and primarily involves working with students in grades 1-8.

Applications

Candidates should submit a CV/resume, two recent open references (or the contact information for two referees), and a cover letter to: Phil Armstrong, Director, Thuringia International School; this.jobs@this-weimar.com.